

County Executive John R. Leopold

Announces

Free Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services For Veterans of Iraq and Afghanistan and Their Families

Anne Arundel County Executive John R. Leopold and the County Department of Health are pleased to announce a new initiative to provide mental health and substance abuse treatment at no cost to Anne Arundel County veterans returning from service in Iraq and Afghanistan, and to the spouses and children, ages 5-18, of these combat veterans.

The free services will be provided at conveniently located area clinics and health care providers. Confidential services will include assessments, treatment and intensive case management.

For more information, call
410-222-0117

This Anne Arundel County Initiative is supported by the Opportunity for Treatment Fund and arranged in partnership with the Anne Arundel County Mental Health Agency.